Peter F. Schabarum Regional Park

17250 East Colima Road Driving Directions
Rowland Heights, California 91748

(626) 854-5560

Open From Sunrise to Sunset

Originally called Otterbein Regional State Park when it opened in 1980 the park was renamed Peter F. Schabarum Regional County park in 1989. Over 90% of this 640 acre park has been left in its natural state for the public to enjoy. The 77 acres of maintained park land offers group picnic sites of which four areas can be reserved, 2 camping sites for youth groups, athletic fields, an equestrian center, 2 tennis courts, an amphitheater and numerous trails for jogging, walking or hiking. On February 8, 1992, 250 Ume trees were officially dedicated to the park in celebration of our relationship with our sister park, Mito Kairakuen Park in the Ibaraki Prefecture, Japan. These trees bloom in a spectacular array of pink and white flowers every February.
